'Sadie Hawkins Stomp' Draws a Large Crowd

Sadie Hawkins reveled in her legendary "turn-about" ritual at the USO Junior Volunteers' dance in the gymnasium of the San Pedro YMCA this week.

USO's "Sadie Hawkins Stomp" drew a large crowd of servicemen from the Harbor Area military installations to "suffer" the sweet tortures of being forced to "Marry" the charming USO Junior Volunteers.

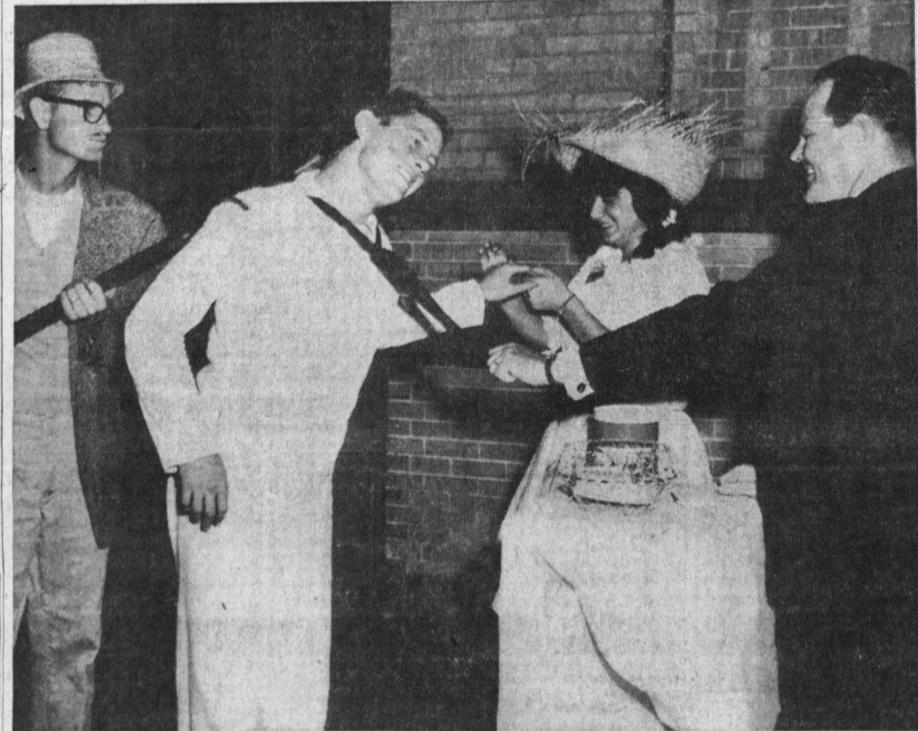

During the evening over 60 couples were marched at gun-point to the chapel to "Get hitched" by the well-known "Marryin' Sam," Mr. Rick Givney of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce. The man behind the gun, "Sheriff" Archie Jones of Torrance, flourished a long-barreled squirrel rifle instead of the traditional shotgun.

Judging from the pleased faces of the servicemen as they were prodded into signing a "Hitchin' License" and slipping a dime-store wedding band on the finger of their own coy "Sadie," the men secretly enjoyed this change.

All dances were "Ladies' choice," with the exception of a few times during the evening when the girls relented and announced that the men could choose their own partners for a dance.

USO SENIOR VOLUNTEER Archie Jones of Torrance acts as "Sheriff" to persuade Seaman Bill Sutton, ICFN, of the USS Frontier (AD 25) to "marry" USO Junior Volunteer Penny Jean Costa of Torrance, with the assistance of "Marryin' Sam," Rick Givney, treasurer of the San Pedro Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Sadie Hawkins Stomp recently.
